Description

Charming 1900s vase with a poppy design by Daum. Daum at its finest and most delicate--this vase is entirely acid-etched and finely glazed on top. A very lovely contrast between the red flowers and the intense yellow background on the upper part and the honey-colored background on the lower part. A lovely parallelogram shape (it is not a square). The delicacy speaks for itself--I'll let you be the judge with these photos...11.5 cm tall, in perfect condition, acid-etched signature on a medallion within the design, circa 1905. Always a very beautiful piece, sought after for its colors and delicacy.
