Description

Photograph of Arthur de Greef (1862-1940), autographed by the composer for Gérald Bertot, also known as the writer Thomas Owen. Handwritten text in black ink; the staff lines are in red: "To Mr. Gérald Bertot With warm regards Arthur de Greef. November 1935". In memory of my dear childhood friends Emerence and Albert Charlier. "The staff shows the first four measures of the theme from his Piano Concerto No. 1 in C minor, composed in 1904 and dedicated to his friend Camille Saint-Saëns. The photograph is glued along its top edge to a sheet of vellum, on which the composer wrote his dedication. Very good condition. 29.7 x 23.9 cm sheet. 22.4 x 17 cm photo.
