Description

An important Napoleon III-era salon pedestal table with an undulating shape, resting on a spectacular gilded wooden tripod base, richly carved with acanthus leaves, scrollwork, and lion's paws, demonstrating high-quality craftsmanship inspired by the Louis XV style. The multi-lobed top is adorned with a remarkable design of beveled mirrors, assembled into a radiating geometric composition centered around an octagonal panel. This elegant mirror marquetry lends the piece a unique refinement and perfectly reflects the decorative tastes of the second half of the 19th century. The finely molded and gilded scalloped band elegantly highlights the harmonious curves of the tabletop. The central base, powerful and sculptural, consists of three volute-shaped consoles lavishly decorated with acanthus leaves, resting on lion's paws joined by a crossbar centered with a prominent carved floral motif. Both decorative and functional, this pedestal table will naturally find its place in a classic living room, a Napoleon III-style interior, or an eclectic setting, serving as a display table or a center table. The piece is in good condition. The mirrors show some discoloration of the silvering and signs of wear, consistent with their age, without detracting from their aesthetic appeal. Period: Napoleon III, second half of the 19th century. Materials: carved and gilded wood, top made of beveled mirrors. Dimensions: Diameter: 105 cm Height: 75 cm A truly beautiful decorative piece, combining the elegance of the Louis XV style, reimagined during the Second Empire, with the richness of its carved decoration and the originality of its mirrored top. Ideal for a home with character or a refined interior. Delivery available upon request. Enjoy browsing our gallery!
