Pair Of Neoclassical Casserole Dishes In Patinated Bronze And Gilded Bronze - 19th Century

8 000 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Bronze

Height : 43

Description

An important pair of large 19th-century cassolettes in the Neoclassical style, crafted from bronze with a brown patina and richly decorated with chiseled and gilded bronze details.The urns rest on a pedestal with a fluted base. They feature refined ornamentation consisting of finely chiseled palmettes, shells, and acanthus leaves. The handles are shaped like magnificent lion heads connected to foliage scrolls, while the lids are crowned with a pomegranate-shaped finial, a highly prized symbolic motif in the neoclassical decorative repertoire. The interior of the urns is lined with gilded brass receptacles.In very good condition.Dimensions:Height: 43 cmWeight: approximately 14.8 kg (per pair)

Dealer

ANTIKVARIAT NICE

Antiquaire Généraliste

Tel : +33751057820

Mobile : +33751057820

16 Rue Verdi

Nice 06000