Description

A display cabinet made of carved light walnut with floral decoration. Ideal for displaying collectibles, this piece is very practical and functional. The upper section features two glass doors, and the lower section has a door that opens to reveal the sideboard compartment. There is also a drawer in the center. This piece is adorned with sea-green marble inlays on its side panels.

Finally, the top section rests on a slab of sea-green marble as well. Made in France around 1880. This display cabinet can be disassembled into two parts for easier transport. The warm hue of the light walnut complements both antique and modern decor perfectly.
