Description

Set of 6 metal chairs from the 1950s; dining chairs attributed to industrial designer François Caruelle, who collaborated with Le Corbusier. The chairs are in very good condition, with no signs of rust; they have been perfectly maintained, repolished, and then lacquered in a "gunmetal" shade. These are nesting chairs, so they take up very little space when stored in sets of 2, 3, 4, 5, or all 6, or when transported. The included cushions are brand new, well-fitting, and comfortable. Perfect for use around a dining table.
