Description

Pair of modernist table lamps from the 1980s in leaf-gilded bronze. They were produced by FONDICA and are the work of Georges Mathias (20th century). The sculptural design features a botanical motif on a solid base. Georges Mathias founded his design firm in 1986 and worked for Hermès, Louis Vuitton, Renault, and Fondica. Signed "Mathias" with the notation "bronze" on the back of the base, and "Fondica" on the lamp sockets. Stamped "G. MATHIAS" beneath the base. Original lampshades in vanilla-colored fabric with fine trim.
