

Late 19th-century Tie Pin. Fleur-de-lis

140 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Crystal

Length : 7.2 cm

Description

The spirit of defending the monarchy remained very much alive at the end of the 19th century, and it was considered fashionable for men to wear a fleur-de-lis-shaped pin on their tie. This piece consists of a delicate pin made of hallmarked gold (a hallmark is present at the head of the pin, though it is very difficult to decipher) and a silver fleur-de-lis (the combination of metals was common until the end of the 19th century) set with yellow and white rhinestones. A small stone is missing at the bottom; otherwise, it is in good condition. It is sold in an antique pin case. Weight : 3 grams
