Description

I'd like to offer you this magnificent Shiwan stoneware statue depicting a young Chinese flute player. She is dressed in traditional clothing, with a long braid falling over her shoulder and pretty flowers in her hair. This statue is a one-of-a-kind piece that demonstrates great mastery of ceramics, featuring a rich blend of colors and very fine details. Note the intricate work on the hands and fingers of this young flute player.The ceramicist's seal is present, along with text in Chinese (see photos).
