Description

Buru Island
From de Sainson's series: Voyage of the Astrolabe
Ca. 1833
Beautiful watercolor print, wide margins, two small traces of oxidation along the outer edges.
Publisher's dry stamp.
This voyage undertaken by Dumont d'Urville aboard the corvette l'Astrolabe between 1826 and 1829 was the most significant French expedition ordered by the government between the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries.
Leaving Toulon on April 25, 1826, after a long voyage and several stops that took her as far as Australia and then New Zealand, she returned to Marseille on February 24, 1829.
