Description

Pierre Cornu was a Provençal painter who exhibited his works primarily at the Martin Caille Gallery in Paris. Born in Salon-de-Provence in 1895, this prolific painter lived to be over 100 years old. He exhibited primarily at the Martin Caille Gallery, which became the painter's leading dealer. Using vivid colors, he achieved international success. He painted primarily women--here, likely his daughter--and was considered a follower of the Fauves. His works were purchased by major collectors from around the world. Watercolor on paper.
