Description

Large Murano glass vase with millefiori decoration - 20th century
Spectacular hand-blown Murano glass vase, crafted using the famous millefiori technique, emblematic of Venetian glassmaking. This piece stands out for its rich decoration of polychrome glass canes, embedded in a translucent glass paste of a superb turquoise blue. Its flared silhouette, with organic lines and a broadly undulating neck, perfectly highlights the richness of the design. The multicolored inclusions, composed of floral, geometric, and abstract motifs, create a remarkable play of light and make each piece unique. Entirely handcrafted, this vase is a testament to the expertise of Murano's master glassmakers, where every stage of production is carried out with great artisanal skill. A luminous and colorful decorative piece,
