Description

A pair of salt and pepper shakers...Made of solid silver...Hallmarked 925 and sterling...That is, 925/1000...Featuring rich Art Nouveau decoration...Featuring a mix of foliage...Note that the entire design is a continuous pattern...!Circa 1890/1900...Of American origin...There is another hallmark with numbers....Is this the silversmith's hallmark...?Or the production date...?It's 1883...!The stoppers are indeed the originals...The letter on the bottom is the same as the one on the rim of the stoppers...!An F. and a U....It's made of repoussé, hammered, and chased silver...A very beautiful piece of work...In good condition, just a small dent on one of the stoppers and the body, and a slight deformation at the base...A silversmith could easily restore it to perfect condition...Estimate available upon
