Description

A large, openwork white porcelain bowl, oval in shape--known as a "navette"--resting on a rectangular shower-shaped base. The navette-shaped bowl is decorated at each end with stylized acanthus leaves; the craftsmanship is exquisite, and the three-piece set is held together by an original threaded rod and clamping eyelet. A beautiful and large piece in this size, quite rare and in perfect condition. Ideal for adorning a table centerpiece, a mantelpiece--with a pair of candlesticks on either side--or even in the center of a console table.
