Description

A rare Royal Worcester Painted Fruit cabinet plate, produced by the Royal Worcester Porcelain Company, England, circa 1970s. The underside retains the original Bonhams auction labels, providing documented auction provenance.The plate is decorated in Royal Worcester's celebrated Painted Fruit pattern. The central reserve is masterfully hand-painted and signed by Royal Worcester factory artist Brian Leaman, depicting a finely executed still life of peaches and grapes against the characteristic mossy ground traditionally associated with Royal Worcester Painted Fruit decoration. The composition is magnificently framed by a deep underglaze cobalt blue border lavishly enriched with hand-applied 24-carat gold decoration.Brian Leaman joined the Royal Worcester Porcelain Company in 1969 and
