Description

Produced by the Royal Worcester Porcelain Company, England, circa 1970s, this elegant cabinet plate is signed by the factory artist Brian Leaman and retains the original Bonhams auction labels, providing documented auction provenance.The finely painted central reserve depicts two peaches and clusters of blackberries resting on blackberry leaves against the characteristic mossy ground of Royal Worcester's celebrated Painted Fruit decoration. A broad underglaze cobalt blue border, lavishly enriched with elaborate hand-applied 24-carat gold ornament, provides a striking frame for the composition. Having joined Royal Worcester in 1969, Brian Leaman specialised in the manufactory's traditional Painted Fruit style. Trained by the distinguished fruit painter John
