Description

Created by the Royal Worcester Porcelain Company in 1937, this elegant cabinet plate is signed by the celebrated factory artist Richard Sebright. The underside retains the original Bonhams auction labels, providing documented auction provenance.The central reserve is painted with two ripe apples and several blackberries amongst delicate flowering sprays, executed with the soft tonal transitions and luminous colouring characteristic of Richard Sebright's finest fruit studies. The broad cobalt blue border is lavishly enriched with burnished hand-applied gold ornament and finely executed raised jewelled (pearl) gilding, creating one of Royal Worcester's most recognisable decorative styles.Richard Sebright is officially recognised as the greatest fruit painter in the history of the Royal Worcester
