Description

A charming antique oil painting on canvas, skillfully mounted on cardboard, depicting two cherubs. The work is framed within a circular composition and can clearly be attributed to the refined tradition of the Roman School. The brushwork and soft color palette reflect the artistic conventions of late Baroque or Neoclassical sacred and decorative painting typical of the Roman area. The work is enhanced by a period square frame made of carved and gilded wood. Condition as shown in the photos. Diameter of the painting: 20 cm. I'm also on Instagram "Mercantedarteroma"
