

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Church Of Saint-sulpice-de-favières, A Pair Of Drawings By Felix Thorigny

230 EUR

Signature : Felix Thorigny

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oil painting on paper

Width : 11.4

Height : 16

Description

Two views of the Gothic Church of Saint-Sulpice-de-Favières (Essonne) by Felix Thorigny (1824-1870). Graphite drawings with highlights in white gouache on mid-19th-century paper; one is signed in the lower left corner. Original wooden frames and bubbled glass. Felix Thorigny Draughtsman, watercolorist, landscape and architectural painter. Born in Caen, where he studied under Mr. Julien, he made his debut at the Paris Salon in 1849. He contributed to Le Monde illustré, Le Magasin pittoresque, Le Musée des familles, Le Calvados pittoresque, and The Illustrated London News. Dimensions with frame: 16 cm x 11.4 cm Dimensions of the artwork itself: 10.4 cm x 6 cm Shipping available: France / International For your information, we always

Dealer

Ponvianne Antiquités

Antiquaire Généraliste, Objets d'Art

Mobile : 06 86 49 01 13

490 chemin de grange neuve

Marcy-l'Étoile 69280

respond to all requests for information via emailPlease remember to check your SPAM folder.