Description

The violet tones complement the blue-green expanse of the water perfectly. The white column in the center balances this harmony with its unexpected perspective. The garland of yellow flowers adds yet another touch to the overall composition. The upper right frieze contrasts with the semi circular arches. The light then brings the scene to life. The swan and the water lilies further highlight the artist's skill. The small format invites you on a journey. Delivery available (not included in the price)
