As always, this talented glassmaker has produced an engraving of exceptional quality; here, he has created a very lovely vase decorated with thistles, the emblem of Lorraine. It features an elegant, slender shape, with graceful curves, a pedestal base, and a small open neck. The design is entirely etched with acid....30.5 cm tall, signed "d'Argental" with a Lorraine cross, indicating the highest quality and signifying that this glassware, having emerged from the Saint-Louis furnaces, was decorated in Paul Nicolas's workshops in Nancy; in perfect condition; circa 1920-1925.
