Description

This armchair from the 1960s, originating from Northern Europe, is a perfect example of vintage design. The frame is crafted from high-quality teak wood, known for its durability and elegant grain, which adds a touch of class to any interior. The foam padding ensures comfort, while the fabric upholstery, though showing signs of wear, retains its original charm. The armchair is in good overall condition, ideal for those seeking an authentic piece to incorporate into a modern or vintage setting. Perfect for adding a touch of history and Nordic design to your home. MOSEPO0320938
