Description

An exceptional and rare Gallé vase decorated with gentians. The photos speak for themselves regarding this large vase with its rich, fully acid-etched design of gentian flowers. The engraving is of very high quality. Beautiful blue hues against a very intense yellow background--a hallmark of quality pieces by Gallé. Elegant shape on a pedestal base, with flowing curves and a slightly flared neck. This design is extremely rare (rarer than roses, columbines, etc.). Large model measuring 44.5 cm, in perfect condition, signed on the side, circa 1900. A high-quality piece--everything about it is lovely... the shape, the colors, the finesse of the engraving... in short, a truly beautiful Art Nouveau vase.
