Description

The fine weave and highly graphic design are the two main characteristics of this captivating kilim. It originates from Shirvan in the Caucasus. Antique Shirvan pieces have that distinctive refined look. They are also extremely fine and dense weaves. The piece is supple and fairly lightweight. Traditionally woven using the wool-on-wool technique. Magnificent plant-based dyes, very soft and in perfect harmony. Some of the hues are completely unexpected--a rarity for a Caucasian kilim. A graphic and highly decorative work. Rather rare given its large dimensions, exceeding 3 meters in length. Circa 1900 / 1920 Very good condition Dimensions: 325 x 162 cm Laurent Beauty of Kilims
