Description

A rare and precious artifact in its entirety, this 11-meter-long strip was once used to bind the canvas of nomadic peoples' tents. Origin: Shahsaven / Persia. The item is in impeccable condition along its entire length. No fading of the exclusively plant-based dyes, which feature magnificent shades of indigo blue, red ochre, and pale green... The fine, tight weave ensured durability for its intended use. A highly decorative piece, suitable for a cornice or any other display. Most often, only fragments of various sizes are found. What makes this piece special is that it is complete and in perfect condition. This is a museum-quality piece, a true collector's item. Circa 1880 Dimensions: 1100 x 30 cm Laurent Beauty of Kilims
