Description

A magnificent antique table linen set, originally owned by a prominent French noble family.This remarkable set is crafted from the highest-quality damask and represents some of the finest home linens ever produced. Its weave is particularly fine, supple, and silky, offering an incomparable sheen and a sumptuous drape.The damask pattern is exceptionally rich: majestic Medici vases from which long garlands of flowers cascade, large bouquets, foliage scrolls, and flower-filled baskets at the corners compose an elegant design inspired by Art Nouveau. A refined pattern that reveals itself differently depending on the light.Two elegant GC monograms, embroidered in satin stitch, adorn the tablecloth, while each of the 11 large napkins--also damask--features the same design and
