Description

A beautiful miniature on ivory depicting a male figure--an aristocrat or member of the nobility--portrayed in his home* Signed in the lower left corner "CIOR d." for Pierre Charles CIOR *The period wooden frame features moldings; the mullion may be gold--I haven't tested the metal--or it could also be pomponne.Viewed from the reverse, the ivory panel has two marginal cracks approximately 3 cm high in the upper corners on both the right and left sides, and a small chip in the lower right corner.As for the painting itself, it is in a rather poor condition due to the poor way it was preserved, which is truly regrettable (restoration might be worth considering).For comparison, similar paintings by Pierre Charles Cior--intimate scenes depicting a male or female figure in an
