Description

A small oval tray...Made of cut blown crystal...With a gold-painted frieze...And the border as well...It's absolutely beautiful and delicate...!And it's in excellent condition, too...!The few manufacturing bubbles...And a tiny chip--or perhaps even a manufacturing flaw--since it's gilded on the reverse side...!Dated to the 1830s/40s...To me, it's a tray for cruets...For religious services...From the SAINT LOUIS crystal glassworks--FRANCE...It's slightly concave...But very flat...Weight... 264 gr
