Description

Oval-shaped coffee cup and saucer with a handle featuring lion masks in bisque. Beautiful naturalistic floral design on a blue background, enhanced by a very rich decoration of gold palmettes in matte and glossy finishes. Early 19th-century Parisian porcelain (late Empire period or early Restoration period), circa 1820. Unsigned; we are unable to attribute this piece to a specific Parisian manufacturer with certainty. We believe it may be a production of the Schoelcher Manufactory (based on signed pieces of the same shape and comparable decorative quality that we have handled) Excellent condition overall; beautiful gilding very well preserved with very slight wear on the saucer, no damage. Total height: 10 cm Cup diameter: 7.1 cm Saucer diameter: 12.4 cm
