Description

An elegant vintage ring crafted in 18-karat yellow gold and featuring a classic three-stone design. Set at the center is a teardrop-cut emerald weighing approximately 2.60 carats, distinguished by an intense green hue and the natural internal characteristics typical of this gemstone, which attest to its uniqueness. The emerald is flanked by two brilliant-cut diamonds weighing approximately 0.45 carats each. Their brilliance creates a refined chromatic contrast with the center stone, lending balance and sparkle to the entire design. The stones are set in traditional prong settings, designed to allow light to filter through and highlight the harmonious proportions of the jewelry. The classic trilogy design, symbolically associated with the past, present, and future, lends the ring a romantic and timeless
