Description

A very elegant and imposing table lamp from the prestigious Maison Charles, signed, made in France around 1970. This remarkable creation features a rectangular base adorned with a spectacular design of coral-like branches in gilded bronze, characteristic of Maison Charles's designs. The lamp is topped with its original two-panel shade in brushed brass, lending it a sculptural presence and casting a warm glow. Thanks to its high-quality craftsmanship, fine materials, and generous proportions, this lamp is a first-rate decorative piece, ideal for a contemporary, classic, or Art Deco interior. The electrical system is in working order. In very good overall condition with its original patina and slight signs of wear consistent with its age. Dimensions: Total height: 67 cm Lampshade:
