Description

An antique crescent-moon-shaped brooch, set with three rows of rose-cut diamonds and antique cushion-cut diamonds along its slightly raised center line. The edges are delicately openwork, and the clasp is a pin with a safety hook. The pin is mounted on a removable screw post. Period: 19th century Main materials: rose gold and silver, 750 parts per thousand, 18 karats, eagle-head hallmark. Total diamond weight: approximately 1.50 carats. Dimensions: Height: approximately 3.5 cm, width: approximately 3.2 cm, thickness: approximately 8 mm. Net weight: approximately 9.4 g. Authentic antique jewelry - French craftsmanship from the mid-19th century. Our opinion: Antique jewelry featuring celestial motifs was very in vogue during Halley's Comet's passage.
