Description

A beautiful antique linen sheet from Château Brillette in Moulis, adorned with a superb "MC" monogram beneath a count's crown and rich Richelieu embroidery, entirely hand-stitched. This beautiful piece is characteristic of the Art Nouveau style, with its soft and elegant lines. It dates from the late 19th century or early 20th century. The linen fabric is dense, typical of winter bedsheets. It has a beautiful drape, holds its shape well, and features excellent weave quality. The MC monogram measures 9 × 12 cm. The count's crown measures 9 × 5 cm. The Richelieu decoration is in perfect condition and elegantly accentuates the bottom of the sheet. Dimensions Width: 230 cm Length: 345 cm Monogram: 9 × 12 cm Crown: 9 × 5 cm Condition The tablecloth has been washed,
