Description

From Scioto County, Ohio (as indicated by the inscription on an old label "Scioto Co. Ohio")This pipe bowl depicts a bird with a long neck bent backward and a streamlined beak forming the tip of the object. It is rendered in a geometric, simplified style, accentuated by fine linear incisions.The carving is clearly very old, most likely from the 18th or early 19th century.DIMENSIONS: 10 x 8 cm (without base); 12.5 x 8 cm (with base)PERIOD: 18th-19th centuriesMATERIALS: stone
