Description

A pair of polychrome Viennese bronzes, signed and numbered by Franz Xavier Bergman, a famous Austrian bronze castor of the late 19th century, renowned for the quality of his Orientalist bronzes. This elegant pair depicts the busts of a man and a woman, dressed in rich Oriental costumes finely enhanced with original polychrome in shades of blue, white, pink, and gold. The faces, rendered with great realism, attest to the exceptional craftsmanship of the Bergman workshops, while the turned bronze bases lend balance and elegance to the ensemble. Highly sought after by collectors, these sculptures embody the Orientalist taste of the Belle Époque and are remarkable decorative pieces. Dimensions: Height: 33 cm. Bronzes signed and numbered Bergman. In very good condition.
