A beautiful vintage clock in the Brutalist style from the 1960s and 1970s. A remarkable clock in excellent original condition, with its original patina and gilding, and in very good working order. Brutalist style crafted from solid metal, combining gilded bronze and brushed, patinated steel to create a chic and creative look. Ardisur SL, signed in the lower left corner, was a postwar designer and manufacturer who rivaled another designer, David Marshall. A rare piece on the market that will find its place in a fine collection or as a beautiful decorative accent.
