Description

An elegant pair of Medici vases made of cast iron with a natural rust-brown patina. Crafted from high-quality cast iron, they feature a classic shape with a wide, flared neck accented by a frieze of ovals, resting on a fluted body and a molded square-section pedestal. Their understated and timeless silhouette makes them ideal decorative pieces, whether for a garden, a patio, an orangery, or a distinctive interior. The patina acquired over time lends them an authentic charm. In good condition, with uniform surface oxidation consistent with their age, which does not affect their structural integrity. Period: 19th century. Material: cast iron. Dimensions: Height: 53 cm Diameter: 41 cm
