Description

Giuseppe Zais (Forno di Canale 1709 - Treviso 1784) - Landscape with a Cavalcade and Fortress. 37.5 x 97.5 cm (without frame) - 45.5 x 104.5 cm (with frame). Oil on canvas, in carved and gilded wooden frame. Giuseppe Zais is among the most celebrated painters of the eighteenth-century Venetian school, known for his scenes animated by travellers, shepherds, and horsemen set within rural landscapes of marked realistic character. He trained in Venice, where he studied the works of Marco Ricci, from whom he drew inspiration for his handling of landscape and figures en plein air. Zais's style is distinguished by the use of earthy, brown tonalities and a rich, impasted application of paint, which lends his compositions a sense of concreteness and immediacy distinct from the more conventional landscape painting of his time. The painting, firmly attributed to the hand of Giuseppe Zais, is an overdoor of elongated horizontal format: a cavalcade of riders occupies the full width of the scene, with three mounted figures at the centre and groups of figures on foot at either side. To the left a fortress with a cylindrical tower dominates the background, while to the right the scene opens onto a lakeside landscape with architectural ruins. The whole is rendered with the loose, textured brushwork characteristic of the artist's mature period. Condition report: Relined canvas. Good state of conservation of the pictorial surface.
