110 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Glass

Description

Set consisting of a long-stemmed goblet and its matching saucer, both made of cobalt-blue blown glass and hand-decorated with white enamel forming delicate lace-like patterns. A technique typical of Bohemian and German glassworks from the mid-20th century. A rare set in this condition: both pieces are in perfect condition, with no chips or restorations.
