Description

Refined carved wooden mirror, finely painted and gilded with pure gold leaf. The mirror features an original mirror and a linear frame, enriched with floral motifs and feral feet. The upper part is also distinguished by an ornate cornice, characterized by phytomorphic scrolls that converge in the center towards a small amphora, from which a palmette branches out. This mirror exudes great taste and refinement, capable of adding a touch of class to any space. Tuscan manufacture from the Neoclassical-Louis XVI period, around the second half of the 18th century.
