Description

A charming oil-on-canvas painting depicting a young child in traditional dress, sitting on the steps of a staircase in front of a wooden front door adorned with a delicate floral design. The child holds a milk jug and a spoon, while his faithful dog drinks from a bowl of milk placed beside him. In the foreground, an imposing copper pitcher balances the composition and enhances the warm atmosphere of this scene from everyday life. The work is signed "Albrecht" and dated 1922 in the upper right corner. Painted in a naturalistic style, it captivates with the quality of its execution, the tenderness of its subject, and the richness of its tones. Presented in its original wooden frame. Dimensions: Canvas: 60 × 45 cm, Frame: 70 × 55 cm. Condition: generally good condition. Canvas on its original stretcher.
