Description

A large sideboard with two curved doors from the Napoleon III period, entirely decorated with Boulle marquetry featuring brass inlays on blackened wood. From a local estate; sold as-is; in very good condition; a detached trim strip is preserved inside the sideboard, and minor chips are visible in the last photos. The piece is accented with gilded bronze trim featuring female figures and decorative moldings. The top is covered with its original black marble. Original key included. Shipping to be determined; I can arrange for unpacking in Le Mans and hand-delivery to a carrier such as Edet, included in the price.
