Description

Devotional pendant or guild badge. Bronze, enamel, etc. Spain, 17th century. Has some flaws. Devotional medallion consisting of a frame (featuring a ring at the top and decorated with plant motifs including fleurs-de-lis at the corners, a band of rectangles featuring ovals at the center of the sides and teardrop shapes at the inward-facing corners, on the front; only the crest is visible on the back) and two front panels. The front panel depicts what appears to be a painted engraving of a Pietà (perhaps Our Lady of Sorrows of Granada). The back panel has lost the openwork plate that this type of pendant usually features. Experts note a series of brotherhood plaques or medallions (oval, rectangular, octagonal, or triangular) produced in Spanish workshops between approximately 1620 and
