Description

Refined pair of three-light girandoles lamps, crafted from hand-turned bronze and decorated with crystals. These pyramid-shaped lamps, each with three tips, are adorned with chains of hexagonal crystals and embellished with teardrop, flower, and geometric crystal pendants. Girandoles lamps were used in ancient times as candle holders, ideal for decorating both a table and a piece of furniture. This pair of objects exudes great taste and refinement, adding a touch of class and elegance to any space. Italian manufacture, neoclassical style, mid-19th century. Dimensions: H x W 73 x 36cm
