cmPaul-Edouard Delabrierre (1829-1912) Paul-Edouard Delabrierre was a famous French animal sculptor , born in Paris on March 29, 1829
.He studied painting with the painter Jean-Baptiste Delestre , before turning to sculpture . His first exhibition took place at the "Salon of French Artists" in 1848 , with a wax sculpture representing "A Terrier holding a hare"
. It was from this moment that Paul-Edouard Delabrierre will devote all his work to Animal Art .Influenced by Antoine Louis Barye (1795-1875) , E. Delabrierre is considered one of the most important artists of the Animal School
.The Louvre hosts "Equestrianism" , surely the largest group that E. Delabrierre has ever done
. He exhibited at "The Salon of French Artists" for about fifty years , from 1848 to 1898 , and received an "Honorable Mention" in 1859 , with his work "Panther of India Devouring a Heron" . He is a member of the Society of French Artists .Paul-Edouard Delabrierre died in Paris in 1912 .
