Description

A silver-plated teapot...By the silversmith GALLIA - FRANCE...Before CHRISTOFLE acquired it along with ALFÉNIDE...!Which would later become GALLIA...A combination of materials that allowed for castings with reliefs that traditional silverware could not achieve...!From the 1900s...A lovely piece from this brief era...!Marking the end of the 19th century and the beginning of the 20th....In perfect condition...Just slight signs of wear, if anything...!Just a little tarnished from one or two uses...The dividers are made of ivory...A model with a foliage design...A truly beautiful piece...!And therefore quite rare...!A first for me...!The photos show it with and without lighting...!Weight... 578 gr
