Description

An elegant antique engraving enhanced with watercolor depicting "La Petite Curieuse," after Jean-Jacques Rousseau (Rousseau del.), engraved by Alexandre Chaponnier (Chaponnier sculp.), a renowned figure in late 18th-century French engraving. The print is delicately hand-colored, lending this composition a charm reminiscent of a miniature. It is presented in a beautiful 19th-century carved and gilded wooden frame, adorned with Renaissance-inspired rosettes and friezes. The reverse side retains its original label from the Parisian gilder and framer G. Amaury, located at 62 rue La Boétie in Paris, a specialist in carved wooden frames. The piece makes a stunning decorative statement, whether in a classic interior or as part of a collection of antique engravings. Some foxing and signs of age are
