Description

"The Glimmers of the Night," from "Variations en l'air," black ink on paper by Raphael ARNAL, by R. Arnal, dated 1932. Raphael Arnal (1906-1966), a Provençal Expressionist artist born in Languedoc, who studied at the Beaux-Arts in Montpellier. He exhibited in Montpellier, Avignon, Salon-de-Provence, Paris, and then for 14 years in Marseille, in the La Pintade neighborhood--which he often depicted in his work--and finally in Vence and Antibes during the last years of his life. He was a close friend of Max Jacob, with whom he exchanged a substantial correspondence that was later published by the journal Massilia. A complex figure in modern art, his painting is marked by powerful expression and intense colors, but he was above all a magnificent draftsman with a sure
