8 050 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Platinum

Description

An elegant Art Deco ring crafted in 950 platinum, featuring a refined geometric design that combines a ruby and a diamond. The central motif features a ruby weighing approximately 1.50 carats flanked by a diamond weighing approximately 1.00 carat. The ruby's intense red creates a striking contrast with the diamond's brilliance, giving the ring a balanced and distinctive appearance. The two main stones are set in an architectural platinum setting, embellished with small diamonds totaling approximately 0.20 carats, with an estimated color grade of H and clarity grade of VS. The diamonds follow the geometric outline of the upper section and extend delicately along the shoulders of the ring. The precise lines, structured proportions, and use of platinum fully reflect the
