Description

A superb lidded soup tureen made of Parisian porcelain, resting on its matching display stand. It features an elegant emerald-green design accented by white medallions adorned with the letter "N" in gold, surrounded by laurel wreaths, in the First Empire style. The handles, the lid knob, and the raised edges are finely gilded, attesting to the quality of its craftsmanship. The underside bears a handwritten mark reading "Décor Main Paris," attesting to its hand-painted decoration. With its generous dimensions and refinement, this piece makes a remarkable centerpiece for a prestigious table or a collection of antique porcelain. Origin: Paris Porcelain Style: Empire Period: 19th century Decoration: Hand-painted, with fine gold highlights Dimensions: Length 50 cm - Height 30
